Fulgor Milano's Sofia professional ranges are the brand's most outstanding achievement. Initially launched in 2016, these ranges offer an excellent alternative for luxury ranges with impeccable craftsmanship, paying close attention to detail and design, seen in each product's symmetric lines and premium materials. Across North America, the 36" dual fuel Sofia is a category leader in sales and features.

Handcrafted Italian design

Meticulously handcrafted and assembled in Bassano del Grappa, Italy, Fulgor Milano's Sofia ranges pay close attention to detail with hand-polished seams and welds. The fit and finish are perfected with precision-tooled parts using premium materials, including 304 stainless steel, aircraft quality aluminum, and tempered glass.

State-of-the-art durability

Sofia all gas and dual fuel ranges are the only professional 48" ranges on the market that offer a one-piece recessed porcelain burner bowl with an elegant matte black finish, making it extremely easy to clean spills and grease. The range also comes with heavy-duty cast-iron grates that allow for easy movement of pots and pans. These grates are uniquely tooled for each range and can be removed and used as a trivet.

Standout performance

All Sofia ranges and range tops are equipped with 5-in1 Crescendo burners that can simmer at 375 BTUs and sear at 20,000 BTUs, allowing for perfect control during the cooking process. Each gas range top comes with the highest quality dual-flame brass burners that distribute heat evenly. Ovens have cool touch, soft closed doors with four glass panels for ultimate insulation and safety. The freestanding Sofia induction range offers premium induction technology under an elegant ceramic glass surface in a true pro-style range. The highly efficient range features four single induction cooking zones with one dual max power 11" cooking zone (max power available in 36" model only).

Value of customization

Lastly, Sofia professional ranges give homeowners the option to personalize a kitchen with easy to install door kits available in six matte and glossy colors, including Venetian Red, Gondola Black, Black Velvet, Palladio White, Verona White, and Rialto Grey. Fulgor Milano's interchangeable doors assist with the home's resale value by allowing homeowners the option to switch back to a stainless steel door easily.
